PRESS RELEASE 1 — CALL FOR ARTISTS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Art Around the Corner Announces Call for Southern Utah Artists for "I ❤️ Art" Community Art Celebration

ST. GEORGE, Utah — The Art Around the Corner Foundation is inviting artists throughout Southern Utah to submit their work for I ❤️ Art: A Community Art Celebration, a one-night event celebrating local art and community on Thursday, November 12, 2026, at the new St. George City Hall at Town Square.

The call is open to Southern Utah artists working across a variety of mediums, including painting, photography, ceramics, sculpture, glass, mixed media and more. Emerging and established artists are encouraged to apply, with each artist eligible to submit up to three pieces for consideration.

Selected artwork will be showcased during I ❤️ Art, giving artists an opportunity to introduce their work to community members, collectors, local businesses and supporters of the arts. Artwork will be available for purchase during the event, with additional opportunities to support the arts throughout the evening.

Artist applications are due October 9, 2026.

Art Around the Corner will bring artists and the broader Southern Utah community together for an evening of original artwork, live music, refreshments, a photo booth and opportunities to experience one of St. George's newest civic spaces.

The event will also highlight the new St. George City Hall at Town Square, giving attendees an opportunity to experience the new building while celebrating the artists and public art that contribute to the cultural identity of the community.

Artists interested in participating can find application information at: artaroundthecorner.org.

Businesses, organizations and individuals interested in sponsorship opportunities or VIP participation are also invited to contact Art Around the Corner Foundation for additional information.

PRESS RELEASE 2 — COMMUNITY EVENT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Art Around the Corner Invites Southern Utah to "I ❤️ Art" Celebration at New St. George City Hall

ST. GEORGE, Utah — Artists, art collectors, families, community members, local businesses and anyone curious about Southern Utah's growing arts community are invited to I ❤️ Art: A Community Art Celebration, hosted by Art Around the Corner Foundation on Thursday, November 12, 2026, at the new St. George City Hall at Town Square.

All are welcome at the one-night celebration, which will bring together local artists and the community while highlighting the new St. George City Hall and the role art plays in creating vibrant public spaces.

Guests will be able to meet Southern Utah artists, explore original works of art and purchase artwork directly during the event. The evening will also feature live music, a photo booth, light refreshments and drinks provided by The Hive 435 Taphouse.

The new St. George City Hall will serve as more than the venue for the evening. I ❤️ Art will offer community members an opportunity to experience and celebrate one of the city's newest civic spaces while connecting with the artists, organizations and supporters contributing to Southern Utah's creative community.

The event is designed for a broad audience—from long-time art collectors and supporters to families and residents who simply want to enjoy an evening downtown and discover something new.

I ❤️ Art: A Community Art Celebration will take place Thursday, November 12, from 6:00–8:30 p.m. at St. George City Hall at Town Square. Admission is free, with guests encouraged to reserve a free ticket in advance.

Businesses, organizations and individuals interested in becoming event sponsors or participating as VIP guests are encouraged to contact Art Around the Corner Foundation for additional information and opportunities to support the event.

For event information and free ticket reservations, visit artaroundthecorner.org.
